

- As a part of co-curricular activities, the Singing competition was organized for the student teachers by the institute on 21st April 2017. There were different categories such as solo, trio and group. Many interested students have actively participated in the competition.